

TURKEY COMMITS A HOSTILE ACT AGAINST U. S.

CRUISER TENNESSEE FIRED UPON AT SMYRNA BY TURKISH BATTERY

Washington, Nov. 18—Captain Decker of the cruiser Tennessee reported to Secretary Daniels early today that while proceeding from Vurla to Smyrna to make an official call, the vessel was fired upon.

Washington, Nov. 18—The United States cruiser Tennessee, on her launch—probably the latter—was fired upon yesterday by the Turkish forts at Smyrna.

Captain Benton C. Decker of the cruiser, in reporting the incident today to the navy department, gave no details of the firing, but added that fears had been felt for the safety of the American consulate.

While awaiting further reports from Captain Decker and others and from Ambassador Morgenthau and Consul General Horton, officials here have two theories.

One is that the cruiser may have been sending a guard ashore to protect the consulate and Americans and other foreigners. They drew this from Captain Decker's statement that fears had been felt for the safety of the consulate. The other is that Captain Decker had called on Consul General Horton, who after returning the call was being taken back to shore by the cruiser's launch, which may have been returning after hours of entry prescribed by port officials which are very strict.

Before regarding the firing upon the American ship as a hostile act, officials here are inclined to await further reports, and hold the belief that it might have been a misunderstanding or the act of some local official which will quickly be corrected in Constantinople.

Those officials who regard the incident as a misunderstanding of some kind say that had Captain Decker been convinced that the Turkish forts were firing upon his ship as an act of hostility, the big fighting machine would not have steamed away to the harbor of Oblos without further incident.

While there is no question whatever of the right of the Tennessee to protect Americans and their interests in the Mediterranean the question of protection of citizens of England, Russia and France which are at war with the Porte, may raise delicate situations.

Chios, at which port the cruiser Tennessee has arrived is the capital of the island of the same name located about four miles off the coast of Asia Minor and near the gulf of Smyrna. The island formerly belonged to Turkey, but as a result of the Balkan war was turned over to Greece. A portion of the population of 60,000 are Greeks.

Dispatches from Athens yesterday reported that the Tennessee had arrived at the port of Vurla, in the gulf of Smyrna, and that her appearance had put a stop to the ill treatment of British, Russian and French residents. The authorities of Smyrna, the dispatch added, fearing a bombardment had left for the interior.

Captain Benton Clark Decker is in command of the Tennessee, which left New York on August 6th with nearly $6,000,000 in gold on board for the relief of the American tourists stranded in Europe. The warship first went to England and then to France and finally entered the Mediterranean where she visited several ports in pursuance of her relief work.

According to the Telegram's staff, Netherlands, correspondent, the Germans occupying Dixmude have suffered heavy losses. In the fighting, which has taken place there, they lost 2700 men.

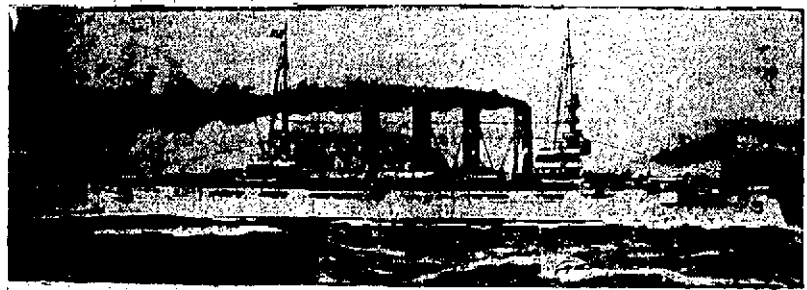

"The town of Nieuport is badly damaged. Heavy cannonading was heard Tuesday in the direction of Ypres, indicating a renewal of the heavy fighting there."

"Fugitives say that additional submarines are being constructed at Zebrugghe."

not cause the slightest diversion from the Russian invasion of East Prussia, which is proceeding slowly but steadily. Meanwhile, Berlin claims a victory near Lipno impeding the Russian forces which, according to German reports, must make a stand before crossing the Vistula river as a retirement behind that stream would be too difficult. Berlin reports that the Russians are near Kutno, but Vienna claims a victory for her ally at this place. From this welter of conflicting

BATTLE OF SOLD AU, TERRIFYING IN ITS FIERCENESS, RAGES

Paris, Nov. 18 (4:31 p. m.)—A dispatch received here from Petrograd by the Havas agency is as follows:

"A terrible battle of unexampled violence has been proceeding for four days around Soldau. The commanding has been maintained night and day. The Russians are endeavoring at any cost to avenge their check at Soldau and are throwing themselves at the Germans with indescribable fury. They have carried position after position by assault in spite of the infernal fire of the Germans."

"The Germans are offering a most energetic resistance, and their fighting is alternately of offensive and defensive."

"In spite of the torrential rain which has turned the ground into a quagmire the Russians are advancing toward the interior of Germany."

"They have captured ten big guns, none of them damaged."

Mortars Made At Cracow

Washington, Nov. 18—Austrian sorties from Cracow yesterday captured Russian fortifications to the north of the Austrian border, according to dispatches received today from Vienna to the Austro-Hungarian embassy. They also mentioned a Serbian defeat which permitted the crossing of the river Kufere.

STATE LINES TO BE FIXED

Washington, Nov. 18—After deciding in favor of North Carolina in the boundary controversy between that state and Tennessee the Supreme Court today determined to prevent further disputes by drawing an exact outline of the location and not relying upon verbal descriptions of the line. The drawing, done by Justice McKenna, will be inserted into the printed opinion which will be the first in a decade to be illustrated. The court has given the states forty days in which to name commissioners to mark the boundary line as established. Should the states be unable to agree upon officials, the court will select them.

ENDEN FIGHT REPORTED BY CAPTAIN OF THE SYDNEY

London, Nov. 18 (10:15 a. m.)—A dispatch from Melbourne Australia to Reuters Telegram Company contains part of the report which Captain John Glossop, of the Australian cruiser Sydney, made regarding the fight in which the German cruiser was destroyed it says:

"The Enden's firing soon failed when the Sydney began to hit the mark. The Enden's rudder was destroyed early in the fight, her speed suffering greatly in consequence.

"Her next loss was the No. 1 funnel, then the foremast and this was followed by the No. 2 funnel, finally the No. 3 funnel fell."

Cattle Epidemic Breaks Out In Three More Ohio Counties

Columbus, Nov. 18—Outbreak of foot and mouth disease among cattle in three new localities, Preble, Champaign and Mahoning counties, were influences today in drawing tighter the quarantine order imposed on the state by the agricultural commission.

Delegations of cattle raisers and bankers who protest against the extreme nature of the foot and mouth disease quarantine were told by A. P. Sandles, president of the agricultural commission, that permits for the shipment of cattle from non-infected areas for immediate slaughter, have been issued in blank to district veterinarians. Shipments probably can be made this week under these circumstances. Permits must be secured, however.

An order permits today duck hunting from boats only in any lake in the state. Heretofore the duck hunting order applied only to the larger reservoirs and lakes.

By nine o'clock tonight authorities will know whether they can release from quarantine any county in the state, it was announced.

Headquarters for the five districts into which the state has been divided for managing the campaign against foot and mouth disease are: Akron for the northeast quarter; Toledo for the extreme northwest section; Lima for the southern part of the northwest quarter; Dayton for the southwest quarter; Newark for the southeast quarter. Shipping permits will be issued from these headquarters, not from state headquarters here.

CHILD LABOR DISPROVED

Philadelphia, Nov. 18—The effort to adjust the jurisdiction differences between the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and the Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers International Alliance has failed so far as the present session of the American Federation of Labor is concerned.

The convention endorsed the following as the attitude of organized labor:

"We declare that any who profit by the toil of child at all, or by the labor of other minors required to toil more than eight hours a day, are unfair and unworthy of the patronage of true patriots and those who desire human welfare."

fresh fighting at Dixmude and the existence between Nieuport and Ypres of a protective sheet of water which renders any further danger of a German advance in that region negligible. The Germans are reported also as having completely abandoned the left bank of the Yser, the flooding of which endangers their possession of Dixmude.

RETIRING CHIEF OF STAFF RECOMMENDS INCREASE OF U. S. ARMY TO 500,000 MEN

Washington, Nov. 18—Declaring it would be impossible to defend the Panama Canal and American territorial possessions against attack with present or proposed garrisons unless they could be rapidly reinforced, Major General Wutherspoon, retired chief of staff, in his report today, recommended the increase of the regular army to a strength of 205,000 enlisted men. He proposed that that force be augmented, through a system of reserves, until there was created a mobile strength of 500,000 first line troops equipped for a six months' campaign. General Wutherspoon said, "there was need for more forces to protect our approaches to America's coast defenses and those points not covered by fortresses, and urged that the organized militia be developed to a strength of 300,000 men."

"It is manifest," General Wutherspoon asserted, "that the great waterway of the Panama Canal cannot be protected against the operations of a first-class military power."

son we contemplate placing there, without the power and ability to reinforce it rapidly from the United States. "That an effective defense against an enterprising enemy in the Philippines could be made with a deficiency of 33 per cent of the manning details of the coast defenses of Manila and Subic bay and with a mobile force of a little over seven thousand American troops, supplemented by less than six thousand Philippine troops equipped for a six months' campaign."

President Prepares Message

Washington, Nov. 18—President Wilson today began work on his annual message to congress which he will deliver in person at the opening of the session in December.

While the message has not yet taken definite shape, Mr. Wilson is expected to discuss Philippine independence, conservation, the Mexican question, government ownership of merchant ships, and the effect of the European war upon the United States.

BIG GUN BURSTS

Madrid, via Paris, Nov. 18 (6:55 a. m.)—The newspaper Pueblo Vasco, of Bilbao states that another German 42 centimeter mortar has burst, killing a number of the gunners. The Germans, according to the newspaper, are carefully concealing the new catastrophe.

COTTON LOAN FUND NOW ASSURED

Washington, Nov. 18—The $135,000,000 loan fund designed to help cotton producers whose great crop threatened to become a burden on their hands upon the outbreak of war, today stood complete. Secretary McAdoo declared in his announcement of the funds completion that the success of the loan plan now was assured. He said it had been "defeated" by the selfish opposition of certain textile manufacturers and local interests who have tried to defeat it.

"We believe," he added, "that the carrying out of this plan is going to be beneficial not only in helping the cotton situation and the foreign exchange but also by promoting the general prosperity of the country which now has such a happy impulse that it would be difficult to retard it."

MAN MUST SUIT GEN. CARRANZA BEFORE HE OUTHS AS PRESIDENT

Washington, Nov. 18—General Carranza has again refused to deliver the executive power to any but a man of his own selection and once more poses plans for Mexico are upset, according to official dispatches today from American agents in Mexico.

Just as it seemed that initial adjustment had been reached, General Carranza has announced that he was misunderstood. From both American Consul Stillman and Leon Canova, special agent at Aguas Calientes, the state department received practically the same version of the newest split summarized as follows:

Carranza first telegraphed General Gonzalez that he was willing to deliver the executive power to Gutierrez provided both he (Carranza) and Villa relinquished their commands and met in Havana November 25. General Gonzalez telegraphed that in Gutierrez, chosen provisional president, who took it to mean that Carranza was ready to deliver the executive power to him.

Now Carranza has announced that when he used the words "provisional president," he meant a man who enjoyed his entire confidence such as General Pablo Gonzalez. American Consul Stillman referred to this as a "new proposal" from Carranza, while special agent Canova describes it as "a repudiation by Carranza of his telegram to Gonzalez."

With troop movements under way and hostilities imminent, efforts were being made today by some of the generals to patch up the differences.

Naco, Ariz., Nov. 18.—R. H. Reynolds, U. S. Customs Inspector, was shot through the left leg by a stray Mexican bullet today when the Maytorena forces made a general attack on the Carranza garrison of Naco, Sonora. Reynolds was in a hotel on the American side at the time. Bullets and shrapnel fell across the line.

British Bombard Two Belgian Ports

London, Nov. 18—7:53 a. m.—A Rotterdam dispatch to the Daily Mail says:

"The British fleet received information Monday which led them to carry out a vigorous bombardment at Knokke and Zebrugghe, on the Belgian coast. The Solway compass works on the Bruges ship canal, which are being used as a base for German military trains was wrecked. A train of five cars, filled with soldiers, was struck by a shell, took fire and was destroyed. Much damage was done to the German stores and supplies."

WANT VOTES RECOUNTED

Toledo, O., Nov. 18—Defeated Republican candidates are considering filing a demand for a recount of the votes cast November 3, on the ground of alleged election irregularities. One claim is that in several precincts, where the crosses were placed outside the ring on the ballots, they were counted straight Democratic votes. William B. Cordill, defeated republican candidate, for congress stated, Tuesday night that he and many other defeated candidates were considering the advisability of demanding a recount of the returns.

I certainly sympathize with the candidate who complained a while back about the public always wanting a change. If anybody thinks that complaint isn't well founded, he ought to be a weather man for about a week. For instance I've been under the impression that the 'dope' I've been handing out for the past few days has been of a pretty high order but it's been fearful hard to make the public see it. They want a "change" and I guess it's up to me to oblige 'em. Here's for tomorrow:

FORTUNE TELLER REAPS A BIG HARVEST OF MONEY FROM LOVELORN LASSES

At last, after days of ceaseless wonder, residents of Seventh street, near Campbell avenue, have located the attraction which is drawing so many of Portsmouth's younger fairer sex to that locality daily. She is a fortune teller, going under the name of Madame Kellogg, and so well has she been advertised over the city that no section of it but is well represented in the steady stream of visitors who fairly haunt the inner chamber where the fortune teller presides.

From six o'clock in the morning until six-thirty at night, the stream of callers, mostly young women and girls, many from the "social 400" continues unabated. One thing is patent, and that is that the comely little miss who is peering into the future for the benefit of the city's lovelorn is reaping a harvest of shekels that would do credit to a financier. Each evening, when she "knocks off" telling fortunes, she has a pile of half-dollars that would gladden the heart of a modern Midas, a monumental proof that the love-sick maidens of Portsmouth enjoy being "hum-bugged."

Here Men Are Barred

Only fifteen minutes is given to each caller, and you have to sit in a down stairs room and wait from thirty minutes to two hours before you can get that much time. "Mere Men" are never admitted. There are always half a dozen or more ahead of the latest caller, and they sit cowering in silent envy of the one who is so fortunate as to be "next" when the doors of the "harem" are opened to permit the latest "victim" to pass out.

High school girls have been among the young clairvoyant's customers, it is said, and the wife advertisement which she has received is largely due to their enthusiastic reports of what transpired in the dimly lighted room where the seeress presides.

Reaping a Big Harvest

Business has now progressed to the point where eager callers are offering more money than the regular fee of 50 cents to be permitted to go ahead of those who are in line ahead of them. One woman recently begged to be permitted to see the fortune teller for just one minute after closing time, only to be met with a curt refusal. The closing time is 6:30 p. m., and is strictly adhered to.

Mistaken Identity

Charles L. Simms, the Portsmouth Steel Company paymaster, called at the mayor's office Wednesday to present himself to the court before he might suffer the humiliation of arrest.

Mr. Simms said the report that he had run over Ed Dingman with his automobile was a mistake, as he had not been in the city at the time of the accident Tuesday afternoon, nor was his machine in use. He brought witnesses to substantiate his claim. A few minutes later the matter was again called up through Will Ellison appearing in company with Officer Donzo. Ellison thought the man he had seen with the car just after the accident was Simms, but was not altogether positive in his identification.

The Markets

Chicago, Nov. 18—Higher cables had a strengthening effect today on wheat. The wet harvest in Argentina counted against the bears and so also did signs that exporters were seeking shipments on an all-rail basis from here to the seaboard. Besides, the northwest was predicting smaller receipts, and there were Kansas complaints of dry weather. After opening $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{3}{4}$ up the market stood slightly above last night's level.

Clear cold weather that favored the handling of the new crop made the corn market easy. Strength of wheat though, tended to uphold prices. The opening which varied from unchanged figures to $\frac{1}{4}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ higher, was followed by something of a sag all around.

Traders in oats seemed disposed to watch other grain. There was but little pressure to sell and the market kept relatively firm.

Lower prices for hogs carried down provisions. Many commission houses took to the bear side.

Chicago, Nov. 18—Afterward prices scored a decided gain. It was estimated that 30,000,000 bushels of the domestic visible supply has already been committed for export. The close was firm, $\frac{1}{4}$ and 1 to 1 not higher. Later the corn market rallied in sympathy with the wheat bulge the close was firm $\frac{1}{4}$ and $\frac{3}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ above last night.

Lurid Story Told By Negro Was A Fake; Police News

A lurid story told to the police by George "Red" Smith, that Moses Morris, with whom he had had a squabble, was the desperado known throughout this section as "Petersburg" and that he had killed seven men in his time, was exploded in police court Wednesday. Smith was not present to hear his story refuted, having escaped from custody while Turkey Joe Stokley was busy feeding the prisoners. He had discovered that police knew of his striding some chickens from McGlothlin's grocery on Eleventh street and decided it best to skip.

Smith and Morris had drawn knives following a dispute as they were leaving Ted Cropper's saloon Tuesday evening. When police approached Smith quickly pocketed his knife and started to berate the other for trying to cut him. He told officers Flowers and Henderson that his would-be assassin was none other than Petersburg, wanted for murder. The two negroes were arrested and Ernest Jackson, another colored man, who had tried to separate them, was held as a witness. Jackson told the court that "Red" had concocted the story to divert attention from himself. Jackson said Morris was not the negro known as Petersburg. He, himself, knew Petersburg well and told of him killing a negro boy named Frank Holmes at Kinable, W. Va., two years ago for accusing him of stealing money. He had seen Petersburg at Lindsey's camp near Waverly last Saturday. He had never heard of Petersburg killing anyone at Grant's Tunnel, Ky., as claimed by Smith. While satisfied that Smith's story was a fiction, the mayor ordered both Morris and Jackson placed in the custody of the sheriff, thinking that they might be the means of locating the real Petersburg.

Albert Armstrong, a city garbage man, denied he was mixed up in the Smith case, but the court held that the fact that he was seen to pick up a sack of corn and start to load it into a wheelbarrow was sufficient evidence. He fined him $10 and costs.

George Turner, an employee of the John Newman fuel store, declared he was the victim of a conspiracy, and that his wife's relatives had plotted against him in charging him with furnishing liquor to his brother-in-law, Russell Hicks, a minor. The boy's father, Ed Hicks, admitted he had only the boy's own word for it, and the court continued the case until Thursday morning.

George Gilmore, who, according to his stepfather, George W. Pemberton, is a past master in the "We Won't Work, Will We?" club was dismissed on a charge of loitering, but was ordered to hunt for a job.

Charles Ramey, a plain drunk, drew the minimum of $5.

FOURTH REASON

For Safety of Deposits in THE ROYAL SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY 819 GALLIA STREET

1. Our loans are made on homes which are the most likely to be repaid of all loans. People must have homes and they will sacrifice to save and to pay for them. When a manufacturing plant is unsuccessful, men will abandon it, and even feel a sense of relief when they have left it. But not so with their homes. To these they cling and every nerve is strained to keep it. These home loans give greater security to our depositors.
2. Four per cent interest, compounded four times a year, paid on deposits. Pass books or certificates of deposit.

FOR UNSIGHTLY COMPLEXIONS USE RESINOL

Pimples and blackheads disappear, unsightly complexions become clean, clear, and velvety, and hair health and beauty are promoted by the regular use of Resinol Soap and an occasional application of Resinol Ointment. These soothing, healing preparations do their work easily, quickly and at little cost, when even the most expensive cosmetics and complicated beauty treatments fail. Resinol is not an experiment. It is a doctor's prescription which proved so wonderfully successful for skin troubles that it has been used by other doctors all over the country for nine years. No other treatment for the skin now before the public can show such a record of professional approval. Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment (40c and $1.00), and Resinol Soap (25c); but for trial also, free, write to Dept. R-5, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Avoid worthless substitutes offered by unscrupulous dealers.

Thanksgiving Linens from Mills that have been shot to pieces by Siege Guns

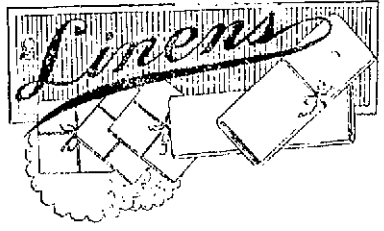

Much of the linen we are now showing and selling comes from the mills of Belgium, Austria and the borderland of Germany. Our importer has advised us that some of these mills have been laid low by heavy siege guns and the stock on hand used for bandages for the wounded. All of this means that linens are bound to be higher in price and that ere long.

Our prices on linens are practically unchanged. How long we will be able to sell at old prices is a matter of conjecture, we will do our best. In the face of conditions, housewives can do nothing more timely than to replenish their linen stocks now.

Added to the inability of mills to produce is the fact that most of the flax from which linens are made comes from Russia and Belgium and any person familiar with the war will readily realize what a tremendous shortage there is bound to be in the crops of these two countries.

From an examination of our linen stocks you, however, would never know that linens were becoming scarce, so complete are our showings. We have the same old numbers of splendid table linens and napkins at the same old prices. Let us supply you now.

OUR SPECIALS ARE:
BLEACHED TABLE LINEN DAMASK AT $1.00 YARD.
GRAND MOTHER'S LINEN (CREAM) AT 58c YARD.

GEN. JACOB H. SMITH HONORED BY SOLDIERS

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18.—A plan to strengthen the national defense with a veteran reserve army was advocated in a resolution adopted by the Army of the Philippines which adjourned its fourteenth annual convention today after electing Brigadier General Jacob H. Smith of Portsmouth, Ohio, commander in chief, to succeed Colonel John C. Loper, of Des Moines, Iowa.

The veteran reserve force, as contemplated in the resolutions, would make approximately 1,000,000 trained men available to the government in the event of war. It would include officers and enlisted men, within the military age limit, who have had military service in the United States army, navy, marine corps, United States volunteers, national guard and American citizens with experience in any foreign army.

Two, and only two, of all the soldiers he ever saw, could be counted in the class that is fearless, said Brigadier General Smith, new commander in chief.

General Smith joined the army from Kentucky in 1861 and was wounded three times, yet he frankly admits he never was used to fighting and values peace as a virtue.

scouts, is manifestly impossible; that we can retain our valuable territory of Alaska in its isolated position against an enemy with any military power by placing a garrison of less than 500 men verges on the ridiculous unless we have ample forces at home to occupy that territory in the very earliest stages of an impending conflict. As regards the Hawaiian islands, all military persons will recognize that the proposed garrison in this possession is far below what it should be to meet a serious attack.

Outlining his view of the army's first line requirements, General Wooterspoon said:

"Careful consideration of our needs would indicate the advisability and necessity for having at all times available at home and in addition to the necessities in our foreign possessions in the first line of our military establishment a mobile force of at least 500,000 thoroughly trained and thoroughly equipped fighting men with adequate supplies for the operation of this force for a period of at least six months. This is a conclusion that seems to have been reached by all those who have given careful consideration to this question. It is also agreed that we should have as second line a thoroughly equipped and trained force of organized militia of not less than 300,000 men properly proportioned as to its staff and several arms with stores and supplies necessary for its operation in the field for a like period."

General Wooterspoon outlined the plan through which he would double the strength of the regular army and create the reserves. The enlisted men would serve a short term with the colors, then pass into the reserves for periods of five or more years, being at all times under obligation to respond in case of national need.

"Assuming," the report continues, "the adoption of a short term of enlistment—say, three years—for the passage of the men thoroughly trained in the school of the regular or standing army, into the reserves, and that men so trained should not be held in the first reserve for a longer period than five years, it would appear that the size of the regular or standing army to be used as a school for the training of reservists, should be about 205,000 enlisted men.

"If from such an army organized on a basis of three years training, we discharge yearly that increment below the grade of sergeant which had completed its three years training, we would have, with due allowance for deaths, etc., in the first year of its complete operation an army of 263,700 (205,000 plus 58,700 reservists); in the second year an army of 322,400 (205,000 plus 117,400 reservists); in the third year an army of 381,100 (205,000 plus 176,100 reservists; in the fourth year an army of 439,800 (205,000 plus 234,800 reservists); in the fifth year an army of 498,500 (205,000 plus 293,500 reservists) would be maintained at the last figure and in addition we would be accumulating trained men in the second reserve at the rate of about 55,000 each year."

General Wooterspoon contended the proposed system would be economical inasmuch as the reserve officers and men would receive pay only during their active service and on being called to the colors. He added that he saw no reason why the same principle as to reserves should not be applied to the organized militia.

THE EAST END MERCHANTS.

The enterprising merchants of the East End of the city are going to have an opening Thursday evening from 6:30 to 9:30 and a cordial invitation is extended to the citizens of the community to call and inspect their lines of goods. We hope that our people, not only those of the East End, but also from other parts of the city as well, will avail themselves of this special opportunity to see how the city is growing and how a wide-awake, energetic and progressive group of merchants have risen equal to the occasion and supplied their section with progressive, up-to-date stores along all lines. So splendidly have they built that their business is extending all over the city.

It is a source of congratulation that the city has such hustlers as are leading in the business life of the East End and we trust that their opening will be fully up to expectations. They certainly deserve success.

Bresnahan Manager

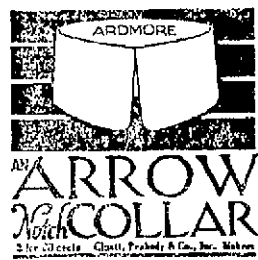

Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Chicago Nationals will remain on the west side and Chas. Weeghman never has had an option on any amount of stock in the club, according to a statement made today by Chas. Weeghman. Murphy, former president of the club, part owner of the west side grounds, and said to still hold as collateral a block of club stock approximating one half of it.

Murphy said it would be suicidal to move the Cubs from the west side where they have always been well supported and where five two-thirds of Chicago's people. The Cubs, including players, franchise and plant, are worth $1,500,000 to $2,000,000, according to Murphy and the club was one of the few to make a material profit last year.

Murphy declared further that Roger Bresnahan would succeed Henry O'Day as Cubs manager next season.

DRY RUN FARMER HAS SON WHO WILL JOIN THE ENGLISH ARMY

G. A. Flagg, of Dry Run, has just received word from his only son, Captain Alston Flagg, that he is enroute from China to England to volunteer his services to the British army in the present war. Captain Flagg resigned his commission in the army just a short time before the outbreak of the war to take a responsible position with the British-American Tobacco Company with headquarters at Shanghai. The casualties have been so heavy among the British officers of the expeditionary force in France that he felt it his duty to return to the service. He was for years with the 25th Punjab in the Indian army.

President Thinks Future Is Clear

Washington, Nov. 18.—Federal loan certificates outstanding or in the possession of banks are secured by paper which officials think will be subject in most cases to rediscount by the federal banks. Secretary McAdoo today had a letter from President Wilson congratulating him upon the inauguration of the new system. He referred to the "opportunities of the currency law, declaring that the war which has involved the whole of the heart of Europe has made it necessary that the United States should mobilize its resources in the most effective way possible." A future clear and bright, with promise of the best things, was his summing up of his view of the business outlook.

A Nervous Wreck

Had No Desire To Live
Peruna Is A Tonic and Strength Builder So Says
Mrs. Frank Strube, R. F. D. 1, Appleton, Wis., her letter reads: "I began using Peruna a few months ago when my health and strength were all gone, and I was nothing but a nervous wreck, could not sleep, eat or rest properly, and felt no desire to live. 'Three bottles of Peruna made me look at life in a different light, as I began to regain my lost strength. While my recovery took nearly four months, at the end of that time I was better than I ever had been before. I had a splendid color and never weighed more in my life. 'I certainly think Peruna is without a rival as a tonic and strength builder, and it has my endorsement.' Mr. Charles Brown, R. R. 4, Box 72, Rogersville, Tenn., writes: 'I have tried many different remedies, but have found that Peruna is the greatest tonic on earth, and a perfect system builder.'"

FORECAST

Fair over upper Ohio valley to night and Thursday. River will not change much.

H. C. DONNALLEY, River Observer.

Pool water from behind Dam No. 26 at Gallipolis has caused a continued swell in the Ohio river here. The stage Wednesday morning was 3.8 ft. and rising. The packet Bay Queen resumed her trade Tuesday afternoon, arriving here at 8 p. m., and returning for Huntington an hour later. She will leave here for Huntington Thursday at 3 p. m. Says the Huntington Herald-Dispatch:

"The towboat Oriole towing a dredge boat and several barges loaded with material and machinery, passed here yesterday for Portsmouth. The dredge boat material and machinery will be used to construct the new Chesapeake and Ohio bridge across the Ohio at Sciotoville. On account of the low stage the Oriole has been three weeks coming from New Martinsville to Huntington.

"The gasoline boat Muggie B. passed here yesterday enroute from Athens to Portsmouth with a tow of apples."

Bandits' Victim Has Brother In This City; Details Of Crime

The series of gunmen's activities in Kenton and Campbell counties, Ky., the past fortnight culminated in the shooting, Sunday, of Joseph Stevie, proprietor of the Edgewood road house at Ft. Mitchell, on the Lexington pike, and a brother of W. M. Stevie, the sanitary carpet cleaner of Court street, this city.

The wounded man is now in St. Elizabeth hospital, Corington, with small chance for recovery. The Times-Star gave the following account of the shooting:

"The three bandits suddenly appeared at the roadhouse shortly after midnight. In the saloon were two bar-tenders and three patrons. With guns leveled, the robbers demanded money. Former Police Chief Joseph W. Pugh, of Covington, did not raise his hands quickly enough and a bullet sped over his head. He darted from the place and took refuge in a darkened room.

Oliver Stevie, brother of Joseph Stevie, was compelled to open the cash register and also to hand over $10 of his own money and a gold watch. Cliff Rankin, chauffeur for Clifford Shinkle, Cincinnati capitalist, was robbed of $20. Albert Withers, a patron, did not respond to the "hands up" order with enough speed and a bullet sped his way. His face was powder-burned, but otherwise he was not injured.

Joseph Stevie was shot before he realized what was going on. He had retired, but heard the sound of shots, hurried downstairs and was about to enter the cafe when the bandits stepped out on the porch. Without a word one man fired at him and he fell—a bullet wound in his abdomen. The robbers, seeing the Shinkle's automobile, which Rankin had driven there, standing in the road, shot the tires of holes, and then, with a parting shot through the front door of the house, disappeared. About $155 was secured in all, according to Oliver Stevie."

The Mutual Protective Association has offered a $100 reward for the capture of the bandits.

POSTAL BANK GROWS

A substantial increase in the amount of business transacted at the U. S. postal savings bank in this city is shown in the report for the year ending November 14, 1914, made public by the postmaster, Vallee Harold, Wednesday morning.

At the close of the year, the accounts numbered 331 as against 223 a year ago, a gain of about 42 per cent, while a corresponding increase is noted in the balance on deposit, the amount aggregating $21,545 as against $15,230 a year ago. In addition to the deposits, $1790 worth of bonds were purchased by the depositors during the year.

Refuse Injunction.

The court of appeals in session Wednesday sustained the decision of Judge James S. Thomas in the common pleas court, refusing to order an injunction restraining the trustees of a Wheelersburg church from constructing a fence about the church property on the ground that it encroached upon the property of Chris Sauer. Miller, Miller & Sauer represented the church trustees, with N. B. Gilliland as attorney for Sauer.

To Higher Court.

The case of Henry T. Hutton against Carl Walker, a land show-worker, has been taken from Squire Finney's court to the court of common pleas by Walker's attorney, Joseph Siegrall. In the lower court, judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff for $11. The defense bases its claim of error on the fact that Walker is but 19 years of age. He admitted on the stand that he represented himself as 21 years of age when he borrowed the money.

New P. P. Wagon.

A new parcel post delivery wagon, built expressly for that purpose, was received by the local postal authorities Wednesday morning, and was placed in service immediately, replacing the old one. It is being driven by Charles McFarland, who is as proud of the new wagon as a youngster would be over a pair of red-top boots.

Dimes Faster Than Dollars

It is frequently said that dimes grow faster into dollars than dollars themselves grow into more dollars.

This may sound absurd, but it has the irrefutable philosophy of truth back of it.

Think of it for a moment and you will realize its correctness. If a man is careful and frugal with his dimes he saves and his savings mount up. But if he doesn't save his dimes he isn't going to save his dollars. So the saying dimes make dollars quicker than dollars make dollars is a round about but striking way of asserting that the best and surest way to make money is to save it.

This bank wants to help you save money and it will do so by paying you interest compounded three times a year, on any sum, even as small as a dollar that you deposit with it as a savings account.

BABY RUNS NEEDLE IN BROTHER'S HEAD

A near tragedy was staged in the sitting room of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Young's home at 1405 Kinney's Lane, Tuesday night, when their two-year-old son, Charles, got hold of a crochet needle and ran it in the head of his brother, Edward Young Jr., eight years old. The needle entered the victim's head just over the right eye and penetrated so deeply that it struck the frontal bone with sufficient force to bend it.

Apprehension was felt that the needle might have entered the boy's brain and a hurry call was sent for Dr. Oscar McKelthwaite. So firmly was the needle imbedded in the boy's skull that Dr. McKelthwaite had to put the victim under an anesthetic to cut it out.

The victim, a bright little chap, was reported out of danger Wednesday morning. He attends school at the Lincoln building. Mrs. Young stated Wednesday that she is not in the habit of letting crochet needles lying around where her children can get hold of them, but little Charles succeeded in getting one and in reaching his brother without any member of the family noticing the needle in his hand. Edward was sitting before the fire reading when the little boy toddled over to him and brought his chubby fist down on his forehead. The injured boy's cries and his blood-covered face caused much alarm. Edward was around as usual Wednesday, but is suffering considerable pain from the peculiarly inflicted wound.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Big Crowd At Mock Trial

A big crowd witnessed the very interesting Mock Trial staged last night at the U. B. church by the Scouts of that troop assisted by the boys of troop 8. Prof. J. P. Yenger, of the High School faculty, presided as judge, and Arthur Newland was court officer. The prisoner was Zachary Fugitt, who was arraigned in court for the stealing of a barrel of waterwurst sausages on Labor Day from the Covington meat market in the East End. This was his second trial, a new trial having been granted him by Judge Yenger. The attorneys for the state were Scouts Denver Farr and Fred Naef; for the defense, Scouts Corwin Knowles and Arthur Doll. The following witnesses testified: Howard Graf, Albert Burke, Ralph Hopper, Harry Porter, Charles Bagges, Goebel Ribble, Frank Davis, Ralph Samson, and Lowell Tatum. Six boys were chosen as jurors as follows: William Smith, foreman; Robert Chapman, Frank Jones, Carl Kups, Howard Moritz, and Edward Cincinnati. Damaging evidence got the prisoner in bad again, and for the second time he was found guilty, and Judge Yenger sentenced him to be electrocuted on Thanksgiving Day at dinner time, and hanged two days later. The trial was very amusing all the way through, and Howard Graf, impersonating Hans Van Moltke, Frank Davis, Miss Lucile Little, and Harry Porter, St. Covington, all made great hits.

Troop 3 Gym Opening

Troop 3 opened their gym last night for the boys of their troop with a record breaking attendance. After registration of members, and a short program of basketball work, a foot basket ball game was pulled off between two picked teams. Rev. Dunning, Scout Master, says he expects an enrollment of 150 boys in gym classes the coming winter. The highest number enrolled last winter was 129.

Affirmative, Charles Baker and William Lakeman; negative, Corwin Knowles and Arthur Doll. A demonstration on Indian Club swinging by Robert Snapp. Vocal solos by Carl Edwards. Piano music by Russell Williams. A few jokes by Charles Bagges. A demonstration of Scout Work by Howard Graf. Talk by H. O. Lodwick.

LITTLE BOY WEAK AND SICKLY

Mother Tells How Her Little Son Was Made a Strong, Healthy Boy by Vinol After a Severe Sickness.

New York City.—"About five years ago my little boy, then seven years old, was very ill with gastritis, then he contracted measles from another child, pneumonia followed, and there seemed no hope of saving his life. However, we fought off the disease and he recovered, but was in a very weak and delicate condition.

"The doctor prescribed cod liver oil, but his little stomach swelled up like a drum, and the doctor said there was no cure for him. I decided to try Vinol, as I had used it myself with splendid results, and it seemed to agree with him. That blasted condition soon disappeared, and now he is a strong, healthy boy, thanks to Vinol."—Mrs. THOMAS FITZGERALD, 1090 Park Ave., New York City.

In all cases where the healing, curative, tissue building influence of cod liver oil, or the strength-creating, blood-making properties of tonic iron are needed, Vinol gives immediate benefit, for it is easily assimilated and acceptable to the weakest stomach, because it contains no oil or grease, and tastes delicious.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etc., etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a nice young man with a college education and in love with a girl who is not a college graduate. In fact I do not think she ever graduated from the city schools. My mother seems to think this girl beneath me, but I am thinking of marrying her. Of course I do not care much for her family myself, but then I'm not marrying her family and won't let a little thing like that stand in the way of my happiness. What should I do. I do not want to give the girl up and I do not want to displease my mother.

COLLEGE GRAD

You mustn't think because you spent a few years in college, you know it all, my dear boy.

Education, according to my notion does not mean the number of pages covered in books or even in diplomas from half a dozen colleges. I have seen people who have had almost no advantages, who were well educated, well read, keen to grasp the point of anything, able to adapt themselves to circumstances. That is the test! Will she meet it? If so your mother is sticking to forms only. Another thing do not deceive yourself with the false hope of not marrying the girl's relatives. You do, in a great degree. You cannot help yourself, and if you cannot be at ease with them or like them, think twice before you mix yourself up with them for life. You surely do not expect a girl to turn down all her relatives for you. If she is made of the right stuff she will never do it. I have simply suggested a few things that must be thought of. Now it is up to you to decide. Neither your mother nor anyone else can select your wife for you.

South Webster, O., Nov. 12.
Miss Dolly Wise—One of our girl friends is jealous of us. There is a young man in this neighborhood and she is mad because he won't go with her. Her mother is jealous and mad, too. He went with this girl some time ago but quit her. She and her mother talk about him, telling of his bad habit of drinking, etc., but they are just jealous. We are respectable girls and he is respectable too. Do you think we ought to pay any attention to this girl's stories? What do you think of this girl?

Better have your father or brother investigate the man's character before you let him call on you. The girl might be jealous, but at the same time what she is telling you might be true. It is always best to be on the safe side.

True Husband at Sciotoville—There is nothing in your letter to indicate that your wife has been untrue to you. Did she explain her visit to Portsmouth and why she was so late in getting home? I think some of your jealous neighbors are just trying to start something, to make trouble in your family. The car service between here and Sciotoville is not very good and she might have been detained. Such things happen every day and every night. I would advise you to forget about that visit in here as soon as possible if you ever expect to be happy and have any peace of mind. Go out with your wife and children whenever possible and please do not pay any attention to the gossip of your friends and neighbors. You owe it to your five little children to stick to your wife no matter what happens. Let forgive and forget be your motto.

Dear Miss Wise—Could you please tell me the location of one or more powder mills. I mean gunpowder, not talcum. Thank you for the favor I am DYNAMITE.

What do you want—powder mills? Do you want to blow yourself up? There's one near Yellow Springs, O., and there's just a couple of them over in Delaware. There's a big one at Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bart came home last night after a two day visit in Cincinnati.

Miss Margaret Williams, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, of Old Caroline Furnace, Ky., and Mr. Edward Carter, first wife of the Greyhound, are to be married at the home of the bride-to-be on next Tuesday, November 24th, at noon. Relatives in this city and in Russell, Ky., have been invited.—Trenton Register.

Miss Katherine Haldeman received a letter yesterday afternoon from Miss Florence Hawking, of Welton, who is taking a course in voice culture at the College of Music, Cincinnati, that she had been chosen from a group of thirty singers as vocal soloist at the popular concert given at Music Hall every Sunday afternoon. Miss Hawking sang before Dr. Ernest Kummwold, director of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, and when she sang a number from Mozart he paid her the highest possible compliment, saying she "had most wonderful talent; great intelligence and interpretive ability." He told her that was all he cared to hear and at once chose Miss Hawking for his soprano. Miss Hawking is an attractive girl, having visited many times at the home of Miss Katherine Haldeman, and during her visits here has made a great many friends. She has sung several times in all Saint's church and has appeared before the public at other places in Portsmouth. Her voice is very beautiful.

Mrs. Levi D. York will be hostess at the next meeting of the Hamilton White Club.

Class Number 10 of the Hutchins Street Baptist Sunday school met last evening at the home of Mrs. E. G. Kent, 102 McConnell avenue. Miss Bell Carter was selected teacher in place of Mrs. Bowman, who is visiting in Cranmer, W. Va., and who will move later to the West. Mrs. Ora Lawson will be the assistant teacher. At the end of the business the hostess served refreshments. Those present were as follows: Mesdames Ora Lawson and baby, Alice Marie, Maud Kent, Anna Labadie and son, Bruce, Sara Bennett, Esther Carante and daughter, Lucy, Sadie Wyckoff, Jenkins, Weeks, Jessie M.

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF DANDRUFF

End Itching Scalp and Stop Falling Hair—At Once.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be glossy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

The sale begins next Saturday.

Mrs. William McCurdy's class of Trinity Methodist church held a social meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Campbell, on Grant street, where the assisting hostesses were Mesdames Mills, McAlister, Reed, E. C. Gray, J. Q. Payne and Pierce. Mrs. Hansman, of Metairie, Wash., guest of Mrs. Lou Eastard, was the only out-of-town guest. There were sixty members who spent the afternoon in making gifts for Christmas. The hostesses served light refreshments.

The Munty Methodist Woman's League, Missionary Society, met yesterday afternoon in the parsonage with Mrs. Gilliland as hostess. There were thirty members present.

Mrs. Gideout and Mrs. Williams read reports of the convention held last week in Columbus. Plans were made to send a box to a student missionary, preaching in Kansas. Mrs. Gilliland served refreshments at the end of the meeting.

Asthma-Catarrh and Bronchitis

Can Be Greatly Relieved by the New External Vapor Treatment.

Melt in a spoon a little Vick's "Vapo-Rub" Ointment and add a few drops of the vapors. Put a little in each nostril and at night apply well over throat and chest, covering with a warm flannel cloth. Leave the covering loose around the neck so that the vapors of Menthol, Eucalyptol, Camphor, and Pine Tar, that are released by the body heat, may be inhaled all night long. In Asthma and Hay Fever rub Vick's over the spinal column to relax the nervous tension. This treatment is not a "cure," but it has at least the merit of containing no harmful drugs and it is sold by all druggists in 25c, 50c, and $1.00 jars, on thirty day trial. Vick's is also excellent for all croup and cold troubles.

QUIT MEAT WHEN
KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Sals before breakfast
if your back hurts or bladder is troubling you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headache, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of itching, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Sals from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous Sals is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Sals is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

A "SEWERAGE DISPOSAL"
PLANT IS NOW PREDICTED

Portsmouth may soon have to face the problem of providing for a system of garbage disposal, according to gossip among the city councilmen, the talk of such a plant having been revived following the visit here of H. G. McGhee, an inspector from the state board of health. The State Board has waged vigorous warfare against emptying of sewerage into rivers which are used as a source of water supply, and those who follow municipal affairs predict that a disposal plant will have to be built here, or rather that two will have to be established.

"There is no doubt about a trunk sewer having to be established from the Hill Tops down through the East End of the city to take care of that part of Portsmouth, and the establishment of another main sewer to take care of the West End," said Councilman George Guller this morning in discussing the city's needs.

"From remarks that have been dropped by the inspector of the state board, when he was here, some plan would have to be established to dispose of the sewerage. It is time for the citizens to begin to think about the needs of the city in this line, and to inform themselves so they can vote intelligently when the proposition is placed before them. Large sections of Portsmouth are clamoring for sewers and will have to be taken care of, and the regulations of the state board of health will have to be lived up to."

WOMAN BORN HERE
NOW 104 YEARS OLD

Local friends and relatives of Mrs. Maria Clingman, of Illinois, a former resident of this city, have received copies of a Chicago paper which has an interesting feature story on centenarians in Illinois, saying that the eight in that state establish a record. The oldest of them, the article states, is Mrs. Maria Clingman, who is 104. She was a Simpson, and was born in Portsmouth. She is a relative of Mrs. Thos. A. Simpson and of Mrs. T. W. Yeager.

The reference to Mrs. Clingman is as follows:

"Mrs. Maria Clingman is but 104. Mrs. Clingman, who has the reputation of being the oldest woman in Illinois, if not in the United States, was born in Portsmouth, Dec. 12, 1809. She was married in 1830 to Josiah Clingman and five years later the family came to Illinois, settling in La Salle county. They made the trip to Illinois by boat, going down the Ohio to the Mississippi and up to St. Louis and then to the Illinois river. In 1837 the husband settled a claim near Cedarville, and that place has been the home of the family since. The husband has been dead for years."

MRS. ANNA ANSTEAD IS GRATEFUL

Mrs. Anstead so often finds the new baby with no provision whatever made for its arrival and this help will be greatly appreciated and give warmth and comfort to many poor homes.

The Use of Bisurated
Magnesia for Stomach Troubles

In these days of almost universal indigestion, dyspepsia and other stomach trouble, the recent announcement by a great specialist that pure bisurated magnesia is an almost infallible remedy for nearly all forms of stomach trouble, will come as a welcome surprise to all sufferers. A teaspoonful in a little water immediately after eating, or whenever pain is felt, neutralizes the excess acid, and instantly stops the fermentation and pain. Those who use bisurated magnesia regularly for a week or two usually find that the trouble has entirely disappeared and normal digestion is completely restored.

THIN FOR YEARS-

"Gains 22 Pounds in 23 Days"

"I was all run down to the very bottom," writes F. Gagnon. "I had to quit work I was so weak. Now, thanks to Sargol, I look like a new man. I gained 22 pounds in 23 days."

"Sargol has put just 10 pounds on me in 14 days," states W. D. Roberts. "It has made me sleep well, enjoy what I ate and enabled me to work with interest and pleasure."

"I weighed 132 pounds when I commenced taking Sargol. After taking 20 days I weighed 144 pounds. Sargol is the most wonderful preparation for flesh building I have ever seen," declares D. Martin, and J. Meire adds: "For the past twenty years I have taken medicine every day for indigestion and got thinner every year. I took Sargol for forty days and feel better than I have felt in twenty years. My weight has increased from 150 to 170 pounds."

When hundreds of men and women—and there are hundreds, with more coming every day—living in every nook and corner of this broad land voluntarily testify to weight increases ranging all the way from 10 to 35 pounds given them by Sargol, you must admit, Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Thin, that there must be something in this Sargol method of flesh building after all.

Hadn't you better look into it, just as thousands of others have done? Many thin folks say: "I'd give most anything to put on a little extra weight," but when someone suggests a way they exclaim, "Not a chance. Nothing will make me plump. I'm built to stay thin." Until you have tried Sargol, you do not and cannot know that this is true.

Sargol has put pounds of healthy "stay there" flesh on hundreds who doubted, and in spite of their doubts. You don't have to believe in Sargol to grow plump from its use. You just take it and watch weight pile up, hollows vanish and your figure round out to pleasing normal proportions. You weigh yourself when you begin and again when you finish and you let the scales tell the story.

Sargol is absolutely harmless. It is a tiny concentrated tablet. You take one with every meal. It mixes with the food you eat for the purpose of separating all of its flesh producing ingredients. It prepares these fat making elements in an easily assimilated form, which the blood can readily absorb and carry all over your body. Plump, well-developed persons don't need Sargol to produce this result. Their assimilative machinery performs its functions without aid. But thin folks' assimilative organs do not. This fatty portion of their food now goes to waste through their bodies, like unburned coal through an open grate. A few days' test of Sargol in your case will surely prove whether or not this is true of you. Isn't it worth trying?

If you want a beautiful and well-rounded figure of symmetrical proportions, if you want to gain some solid pounds of healthy stay-there flesh, if you want to increase your weight to normal, weigh what you should weigh, so straight to your druggist today and get a package of Sargol and use it as directed. Sargol will either increase your weight or it won't, and the only way to know is to try it. A single package of Sargol easily enables you to make this test. Sixty days' use of Sargol, according to directions, is absolutely guaranteed to increase your weight to a satisfactory degree or your druggist will refund all the money you have paid him for it. Sargol is sold by leading druggists everywhere and in Portsmouth and vicinity by

Before an enthusiastic lobby of strong lined spectators, whose yells and yelps added spice and ginger to the informal affair, four teams of the Masonic Bowling League clashed at the Play House alleys Tuesday night, the Ivory Knobs taking two out of three from the Giant Killers, while the Rexalls performed a similar feat at the expense of the Cement Specialists, who are experiencing an awful time securing a toe hold this season.

The games last night were as exciting as a hornet's nest in action, the players behaving like rosters in the shadow of the goal post. Especially was this true of the surroundings attendant upon the Ivory Knob-Giant Killer games. The games were as close as a mustard plaster and at no time did either aggregation have a clinch. The Ivory Knobs, thanks to the phenomenal work of President Bill Zollman, captured the opening game. The head of the league was the high man on his team, coming through with a turkey that gave his team mates all sorts of pep. The second game was lost to the Giant Killers because of a split in the last frame. This split which was noted up by the Giant captain almost killed Captain Perry Winkler Young, who knocked off seven barrels from the ceiling inflicting a nasty wound that may prove serious if infection develops. Captain Young had a jack rabbit back-off the boards and gave seven slavers of the Highland fling in evening costume. "Doc" knew that split gave his team the victory and he was just as happy as though he had struck out, thereby winning the game. Suffering from reverses put the Giant Killers in their rental and they romped home with the last game in easy fashion. So far as consolation was concerned, William Clayton was the bright and shining star—but that isn't saying anything complimentary of the good natured fellow, despite the high sounding phrase and beautiful adjectives. For genuine consistency look what Orville Sprague accomplished.

The Rexalls, because of the spectacular work of their captain, George Wurster, whined seven kind of languages out of the Cement Specialists, giving Clayton's boys the satisfaction, as a sort of consolation. The adage, "Let George do it," was fittingly exemplified, for the big fellow crashed through those pins like a reaper in a wheat field, making scores befitting of the name Rexall. Bradford and Clayton gave him valiant assistance. The Cement Specialists did not have any "heavy men" in the line-up, although Dr. Frank Free-stone Spencer gave some symptoms of bowling, getting high average for his team. The rest sort of Jim Lagarized their way, Captain Cravelling anchoring with a low roll an average of 150, considerably less.

On Friday evening the Corn Shuckers and Corn Hoppers will meet on alleys 2 and 3, while the Bald Eagles and Spiders will clash on alleys 4 and 5. Watch the pins fly. The scores:

WILL MILLER HUGGINS MANAGE THE REDLEGS? Miner Is Killed

Over in St. Louis they don't seem to think that Manager Herzog of the Reds or Huggins of the Cardinals will have their jobs next season. Expecting a combination of the Cards and Reds, they believe Fielder Jones will manage the St. Louis team and use Charley Herzog at short. This would leave Huggins open to manage the Reds.

As much as Jones is a manager of known worth and Huggins is a Cincinnati, this part of the deal looks all right, but where does Herzog come in? It would be quite a drop for Charley from the management of a team to a player on a Federal combination. If we remember rightly, Huggins has been quoted as saying he "would fear the uniform off his back and quit the game" if the major league managers ever consented to recognize the Federals.

NO GAME ON SATURDAY

A number of the old boys will be back on the job and will attempt to show the young boys up.

ROOF FIRE

A roof blaze on the home of James Sexton, of 2217 Robinson avenue called the East End company to that place at 9:30 Wednesday morning, but their services were not needed, as neighbors quickly put out the blaze with a small loss. An alarm was turned in from Box 146.

Destroyed By Fire

A two-story 8-room frame house belonging to Mrs. Elizabeth Walker, was completely destroyed by fire at Linwood just east of Sciotoville Wednesday morning at 4 o'clock.

The fire was not discovered until the home was completely enveloped in flames. It is thought to have started from a grate fire left burning over night by carpenters who were engaged in remodeling the house. None of the furnishings were saved and Mrs. Walker's loss is estimated at over $200. She carried between $900 and $1,000 insurance. She had been making her home with a brother, H. David Bahner, while her property was being improved.

OHIO STATE WINS TITLE

(Columbus Dispatch)

Ohio State won the Ohio title, Saturday, by making its state a clean sweep and showing marked superiority over its other leading rivals when cumulative scores are viewed. Miami defeated Cheshire 9 to 0, and Denison, defeated by many as the best Ohio eleven outside of Ohio State, won by a 20 to 0 total. So the 39 to 0 of the Scarlet and Gray indicates considerable superiority over its other Ohio foes. While the team is the only undefeated team in Buckeye land when strictly state games are considered, furthermore, it hasn't been defeated by another Ohio team since 1911. So there is an argument over the result of the campaign.

OLD SCHOOL EXERCISES CAUSED A BIG LAUGH

If you should happen to notice any men walking along the streets today laughing to themselves don't think them questionable as to their mental condition for they were probably at the "Old School Exercises" given by Trinity Mon's Bible class Tuesday evening when twenty-five members of the class arose before the "school" and delivered the "pieces" of their boyhood days. The performance was a scream from beginning to end with about one hundred and fifty men to enjoy it. Prof. Appel, superintendent of schools, was the school teacher, and a dandy he was. He announced the speakers with an abundance of wit and when the speakers were not causing the "school" to laugh the teacher was. Each speaker was called by his boyhood name and responded in his boyhood manner. The teacher had some little trouble getting the new scholars enrolled and tabulated particularly Charlie Bridwell, who was obstreperous from the start. Little Jimmie Finney began the program by speaking that classic, "My Lost Pantaloon," and received a great hand. By referring to little Jimmie's style of dress the teacher thought the subject of the piece both appropriate and a coincidence. Verne Davidson, whose name as an elocutionist, had been wafted down from South Point in advance of the entertainment was greeted with cheers and paper wads when he mounted the rostrum. His temporary embarrassment caused him to somewhat lose confidence in himself and he very thoughtfully handed a book to the teacher and asked him to prompt him in case he should forget. He then very boldly spoke the two line piece entitled "Jack Be Nimble" without skipping a word. (Great applause.) Charlie Bridwell was next with "The Snakes," ably assisted by Wells Crawford with a pipe full of tobacco. The net almost choked when the teacher slipped Bridwell's manuscript from him leaving him alone in his embarrassment. Little Shumway spoke "Boyhood Days On the Farm" in German brogue, which piece also took first prize. (More to be said about this later.) Grant Orrin, as was expected, brought down the house with "Twinkle Twinkle Little Star," one could almost see stars, it was so spectacular. Johnie McMillan was next, in knee breeches, big collar and Windsor tie, with a very sad little song about the water lily pond. A little boy finally fell in to the pond near the end of the fifteenth verse and there found a watery grave, (song didn't say whose it was), which caused many of the scholars to burst out crying. The teacher ruled that hereafter all such solemn and numbers must be omitted from the program or Little Shumway would cry his little self sick. Jack Hood came next with his charming and "Family Financiering" and then Jimmie Pfeiffer came with a piece that he had spoken before he reached the platform, so anxious was he to recite. Nobody has yet figured out what the piece was about. He was immediately sentenced to the kitchen to help prepare the sandwiches. William Anderson came next with "The Destruction of Bencherib" and rendered it (rendered is good) like a boy who might be much older than he. Of course he got a glad hand. Little Park Mills, ducking the chandeliers, finally reached the stage and delivered exquisitely, "Juck and Jill." Here Wells Crawford made his second bit of the evening and was followed by J. J. Davidson who the teacher announced was to speak "So Fondly I Remember," but that he had forgotten it and would speak "Way Out West." The class know now why he was called "The Flowery J. J." in South Point. That little Sampson boy spoke "A Vision in the Form of a Dialogue" that for length was a corker. He was cheered when he sat down so the program could go on. Little Billie Williams (some call him Captain), had quite an essay on "The Seasons" which ended up very dramatically with "Give me liberty or give me death." John Demmon proceeded to "ball out" Verne Davidson for stealing his piece, after which Jimmie M. Williams after numerous "Bahs" from the school began "Mary Had A Little Lamb." He was flying high until the middle of the second verse was reached when he got his repertoire mixed and after telling about the lamb going to school, proceeded to say: "For I was born at Bingen, Fair Bingen on the Rhine." After getting the piece so tangled that he found himself in a blind alley, Jimmie sat down crying. George Benjamin spoke at this time a little German piece, something about "Wieners" the school thought, but when they were to come later the teacher said if there were any more pieces like that they would eat them, they wanted no more of that Dutch speaking. Little Georgia Metzger was to speak "Little Duck Horner" but in mounting the steps to the platform had the misfortune to stumble and fall, which of course caused him to cry exceedingly loud and long. He had forgotten his handkerchief and of course had to use his coat sleeve, up to about the elbow. He was finally quieted and finished his piece in good order. C. Lloyd Strecker spoke "Take or Tattah and Wait" very sweetly, which piece showed what a hardship ministers have when it comes to eating and we will wager that when that little fellow grows up he will steer clear of the ministry. Mark Crawford, who up to this time had been a sponge soaking up the fun and

Blood Sufferers Want to Know

The Light is Turned on to a Subject of Darkness.

The mere fact that S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, drives out disease is a world's story, a topic of conversation wherever men get together. They wonder why, simply because most remedies are mylarized and put before them as "discoveries." The facts are that we say too much attention to possibilities and not enough to real, honest accomplishment. It has a history that is written deeply in each mind because it has done the work, driven out deep seated disease, relieved hope, put the O. K. on appearance and clamped down tight any effort of germs to get the upper hand. Any sore spot on the skin is an immediate demand for S. S. S. since the first principle of this famous remedy is to strike out for pieces of trouble. This is a physiological fact and S. S. S. is true to the workings of our body. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today at any drugist and begin blood health. It will master any blood disease and do it in a way to emphasize its influence. And if you would like definite advice write The Swift Specific Co., 10 West 11th, Atlanta, Ga. Their medical department is where most people first seek advice that puts them on the straight road.

4 REEL FEATURE

MYSTERY SURROUNDS THE IDENTITY OF A DEAD MAN

Joy took the place of sadness in the Stewart family in this city Tuesday night, when it was fully established that the Stewart killed in a railroad wreck in Illinois was not Cecil Stewart, a former Portsmouth boy.

A telegram received from Anna Stewart, his brother, who went to Cincinnati Tuesday afternoon to learn the true facts, stated that his brother was alive and well. He returned late Tuesday night, and confirmed the message upon his arrival.

It is now feared by local relatives that the man killed was Charles Stewart, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Weichmann, of 3016 Walnut street, this city. His wife, from whom he has been separated for the past five years, now resides in Cincinnati.

Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock, Mr. Weichmann received a message from Mrs. Stewart, asking him to send her six-year-old son, Harry, who makes his home with his grandparents, and $20 to Cincinnati immediately. This message was followed about 8 o'clock Tuesday evening with a telephone message from the daughter, urging that her son be sent to Cincinnati on the first train.

Mr. Weichmann left early Wednesday morning for Cincinnati with the child, and promised to notify his wife immediately upon his arrival at his daughter's home of the trouble.

Charles Stewart, the supposed victim of the wreck, is a switchman on the C. & O. of Indiana and resides in Illinois. He located in Portsmouth several years ago as an employee of the N. & W., and it was while here that he met and married Miss Gertrude Weichmann. Last July, he visited for a few days at the Weichmann home, coming here to see his six-year-old son, Harry.

GRAY HAIR MADE
LUSTROUS,
NATURALRadiant Youthful Color Comes Back Quickly. Nature Does It.

"Here's something that will make you ten years younger in ten days," said a well-known druggist in town as he handed a bottle of Hay's Hair Health to a woman who was prematurely gray.

You can't get away from it—gray hair does make one look old. Science has come to the rescue and makes it possible to do as the druggist says—restore gray hair and look ten years younger.

Hay's Hair Health does it—you simply apply this dainty, refined toilet preparation to your hair and it causes the oxygen in the air to so act upon each gray or faded strand that it actually comes back to the dark, lustrous color of youth. It doesn't stain, for it isn't a dye—simply causes nature to restore the natural color you so much desire. The good old-fashioned ingredients contained in Hay's Hair Health strengthen, revitalize and beautify the hair.

It makes the color so even, and leaves a gloss so natural that no one will know you are using anything on your hair. Any person who has thin, gray or scruffy hair and wishes to restore it to its fullness of color and luxuriance, should go at once to his druggist and get a 25c, 50c or $1.00 bottle of Hay's Hair Health. The Philo-Hay Specialties Company, manufacturers of Newark, N. J., authorize him to refund full price to any dissatisfied purchaser.

The Movies

At The Exhibit

"Cameo of Yellowstone" is the name of the two-reel feature to be shown at the Exhibit tonight. It is supplemented by "Guida," a dramatic presentation with a vein of touching humor.

For Thursday night, Manager Law has secured one of the most powerful pictures that has ever appeared in Portsmouth. It is christened "Prisoner of the Owl Gang" or "The Victims of Revenge." This great drama is shown in four parts. The picture is sensational, spectacular, exciting and emotional. There is a punch in every foot of the film, and it is a story which shows the inner workings of a secret society of "Owls."

"Classmates" Columbia Tonight. Manager Tyne announces a return engagement of "Classmates" at the Columbia this evening. This is a reproduction of Robert Edison's greatest play in four acts and was shown at the Columbia a few weeks ago, at which time it gave such general satisfaction. Many persons who saw this great picture have requested its return and those who did not see it when here before should avail themselves of another opportunity to see it this evening, as it is easily one of the very best pictures ever offered in Portsmouth, and think of the price, 10 cents to all.

On Friday, Paramount Day, Miss Margaret Clark will make her first appearance on the picture screen in Portsmouth in a beautiful little play entitled, "Wildflower."

You will remember Miss Clark as the beautiful little lady who appeared at the Grand Opera House in this city with De Wolfe Hopper a few years ago; you will also remember her in the character of "Zola" in Brady's comedy "Baby Mine" which you saw at the Grand year before last. The management of the new Majestic Theatre in Columbus, pronounced "Wildflower" the best Paramount picture that has appeared up to the present time.

THEATRICAL

"The Misdemeanor Lady"

On Tuesday, matinee and night, at the Sun theatre, November 24, the three-act laughing success, "The Misdemeanor Lady," will be presented. This piece is one of last season's distinct hits in New York where it appeared at the Fulton theatre for nearly a year, following with a three months engagement at the Colonial theatre. "The Misdemeanor Lady" is the second offering of its authors, Paul Dickey and Charles Goodland, their first being "The Ghost Breaker" in which Mr. Henry B. Warner starred successfully.

At The Sun

Last night of the week will be presented at the Sun one of the largest and highest salaried acts in vaudeville, headed by Joe Marks, but act eight people. "Recess House Fun" in a Play Ground, an act enjoyed by the old as well as the young, an act carrying us back to the good old days we enjoyed in our younger

DON'T WASH YOUR HAIR WITH SOAP

When you wash your hair, don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared champoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain unsifted coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.
